

Places of Worship

Different religious worship in different places:

Have a look at each of these places:

Buddhist Temple

Buddhist - Temple

Christian – Church

Hindu – Temple

Mosque

Muslim – Mosque

Jew – Synagogue

Sikh - Gurdwara

Each provides a place where believers can meet together, to honour their God or their Gods. When they meet together, they often have a ceremony or service where worshipers follow set actions and rituals in worship to demonstrate their beliefs.

Christians meet in churches

Sikhs meet in Gurdwaras

Hindus and Buddhists meet in temples

Jews meet in Synagogues

Muslims meet in Mosques

Activities:

1. Make it! Choose one of these places of worship and make it! You could use Lego, scrap materials or even clay.

2. Draw it! Choose one of these places of worship and draw it, taking careful notice of the details. Alternatively, you could draw an aspect of one of these buildings - perhaps zooming into the intricate designs on the roof.

3. Research it! Carry out your own further research. What do they look like inside? What special objects do they have? Do you know where they are in Ashford or Kent?

4. Design one! If you were to design your own place of worship what would it look like? What special features would you have? What would it be called?

5. Experienced one? If you have been to one of these special places to worship; describe what your experience was like. Where did you go? What did you see? How did it make you feel?
