

Remote education provision: information for parents

This information is intended to provide clarity and transparency to pupils and parents or carers about what to expect from remote education if local restrictions require entire cohorts (or bubbles) to remain at home.

For details of what to expect where individual pupils are self-isolating, please see the final section of this page.

The remote curriculum: what is taught to pupils at home?

At Repton Manor, we will provide learning for children in line with what is being taught in class from day one of isolation.

If a whole bubble is isolated, a pupil's first day or two of being educated remotely might look different from our standard approach, while we take all necessary actions to prepare for a longer period of remote teaching.

What should my child expect from immediate remote education in the first day or two of pupils being sent home?

All teachers will upload the PowerPoints and resources that would have been used in class to the children's Google Classrooms. This means that all children will have access to the same learning as that which would have been delivered in class. The learning can be completed electronically and submitted, or it can be completed on paper and photographs or videos can be sent back to the class teachers to show the learning. Your child's teachers will comment on the learning submitted.

Following the first few days of remote education, will my child be taught broadly the same curriculum as they would if they were in school?

We teach the same curriculum remotely as we do in school wherever possible and appropriate. However, we may need to make some adaptations in some subjects from time to time. For example, some activities and tasks that are planned to be completed in school may have to be adapted for use at home if resources are not available at home.

Remote teaching and study time each day

How long can I expect work set by the school to take my child each day?

All work set is in line with the teaching that pupils would receive in school. We follow a flexible timetable in school, so some timings and subjects may change from day to day. We expect that remote education (including remote teaching and independent work) will follow a similar pattern to that of below (please note that timings are only estimations):

Learning Expectations – Learning to be submitted each day:

Each day we would like learning to be submitted to your child’s teachers via their Google classroom for Maths, Reading, Writing and Curriculum. We will ensure that all learning submitted on the same day or by 9am the next day is commented on with a motivational comment.

We would encourage families to submit learning the same day, or the following morning by 9am, so that it can be marked by our staff and so that any future learning can be adapted as necessary. If there is a reason why this is not possible, we would ask you to please contact your child’s class teacher via the year group email accounts. If it is handed in after this time, we cannot guarantee that it will be commented upon.

Assessment of Learning

Each piece of learning submitted for Reading, Writing, Maths and Curriculum will be marked with a positive/ motivational comment.

If a child needs individual feedback to address a misconception, we will contact your child.

If group feedback is needed, this will be given in the next live lesson.

Your child's teachers will mark one piece of learning each week with next steps feedback for each subject (Reading, Writing, Maths, Curriculum). This will provide your child with a next step (which they may know as a 'pink') for their future learning. Their comment may come across as a written comment or voice note.
